Welcome

Hi New Student,

Welcome to the United States, to California, to Cupertino, and to De Anza College. We hope you will have a great stay and enjoy the richness of life here in Silicon Valley.

This booklet, Freshman Compass Fall 2018, is a gift from local Christians interested in being your friends and helping you get the most out of your stay here. We are hoping that this booklet would help you get to know this area better and find things that might be helpful in your daily life.

Inside this booklet are housing info, bus routes, as well as places to shop. General information about American culture, local events and holidays is provided as well. To help you live a more enriching life, we have also listed many local events that you might be interested in. CCEM offers programs in both Mandarin and English. To find out more, you can go to "Foothill - De Anza Freshman Compass" Facebook page. Pemuda Fellowship offers programs in Indonesian. Their Facebook page is "Pemuda Gii San Jose".

The Freshman Compass Orientation Program collaborates with four clubs from Foothill College and De Anza College featured at the bottom of the page. We sincerely appreciate their effort that made the Program possible. You can read more detailed information about these organizations in the last few pages of this booklet.

Again, welcome to Cupertino and to our local community.

Sincerely,
Your Friends

Manners & Etiquette

Greeting:

- The moment you arrive in the United States of America, some strangers were already greeting you with a smile on their faces. It's something really common around here.
- Americans are used to say "Hi" and "How are you doing?" to anyone, even strangers they meet. Don't feel weird about it. Respond with a SMILE too!
- Whenever you're leaving a place, be sure to say "Thank you" or "Have a nice day" because it's part of the American culture and courtesy. Be polite and respectful to those who treat you like a friend even though he or she is a stranger.

Sneeze:

- Some Americans will say "God bless you." or "Bless you." whenever you sneeze. There are some origins behind these phrases and they all share the same meaning of wishing you good health.

Culture

Tipping in Restaurants

Giving tips along with your bill is mandatory if you dine in. The basic calculation for tips is: $\text{subtotal} * [1 + \text{tax rate (9\%)}] * \text{tip percentage}$.

The suggested tip percentages are often shown on the bills. If not, tip percentages are generally at least 18% for a party fewer than 6 and 20% for 6 or more.

Return Policy

You are able to return any purchased items within a limited time period with a receipt. In most cases, items can be returned within 30 days, but electronics have only 1-2 week time limit. Depending on terms and conditions stated, sometimes you're even allowed to return items after you've opened or used it.

Food Culture

American food culture revolves around a lot of burritos, tacos, burgers, steaks and pizza. Many restaurant chains serve pretty good food. For example, Chipotle, In-N-Out Burger, Outback Steakhouse.
